OUR STORY

The Tin Roof Eatery is a place with a rich history, full of stories waiting to be discovered. Situated in Hartbeespoort, a town founded in 1896 on a farm known as Hartbeespoort, which means "Gateway of the Hartbees," this place holds a special significance.

A Hub for Trading and Socializing

In its early years the Tin Roof homestead served as an important trading post for farmers and traders that came together to exchange their goods. It was a place where people could gather, socialize, and enjoy food and drinks.

Origins and the Dam Wall

It all began with the Hartbeespoort Dam also known as Harties, a dam wall was built on the crocodile river close to a railway line that now leads to Meerhof. The Tin Roof Eatery stands as the original homestead in this area. Each tin roof will tell its own diverse story, our flagship store is situated in Harties.

Preserving the Heritage

Today The Tin Roof Eatery proudly preserves the legacy of the original homestead and the stone walls remnants of the Tin Roof trading co. have been incorporated into the restaurant's design, they stand as a testament to the history and heritage of this place.

Our Dedication to Community

The iconic red tin roof of The Tin Roof Eatery represents our commitment to community, our people, our customers!
